

School Training Checklist

- Overview of diabetes, type 1 and type 2
- Importance of maintaining optimal blood glucose
- What can effect diabetes management?
- School's role in diabetes management
 - Who is the designated care personnel
 - Who else can assist
 - With what tasks does the student need assistance
- Federal/State Laws
- Recognize and treat hypoglycemia
 - Symptoms
 - Treatments – mild
 - Never leave child alone
 - When do I call 911?
- Using glucagon
- Recognize and treat hyperglycemia
 - Symptoms
 - Treatments
 - Ketones
 - When do I send the child home?
- Different kinds of insulin
- Planning for school emergencies: disasters/lock downs
- Diabetes technology
- Pump/CGM site rotation
- Social/Emotional Issues
- DYS Services/Contact Information

I have completed the Diabetes Youth Services School Support Training and covered all of the above topics. I have had all of my questions addressed and feel comfortable performing the necessary tasks to care for students with diabetes in my care.

School Nurse or School Representative Signature Date

School Nurse or School Representative Printed Name

School

I have presented the listed information to the school. I have addressed questions and concerns and presented the school with a DYS School Resource Guide for further information.

DYS School Support Presenter Signature